

THE SECOND ERASMUS + TRAINING EVENT: ĐURO PILAR PRIMARY SCHOOL, SLAVONSKI BROD

The second Erasmus + training event started 19th November and ended 21st November 2018. The event took place in Đuro Pilar Primary School in Slavonski Brod and the topic of the event was making the e-book. The e-book as a project result involves special computer skills gained in the training. Gračani project team members who participated in the event are the headteacher Nataša Gjuran, a class teacher Ivana Zelić, a librarian Jelena Andrić and an English teacher Tanja Đurić.

The first day of the training the hosts welcomed project teams from Ljubljana and Zagreb and showed them the school and city sights such as the Fortress, Ružić Gallery and Franciscan monastery. Afterwards, a project meeting was held and the introduction about the e-book led by Hrvoje Alilović.

The second day was fully dedicated to the e-book workshop. During the workshop, tools Canva and Calibre were used. Besides making the e-book, teachers tried to make a logo too and gained skills needed for creating an e-book and a logo, which will help them in further project activities.

The third day included Đakovo and Osijek sightseeing and a visit to the Nature park Kopački rit. The awarding of certificates took place at the eco family farm Eagle Flyway in Kopačevo, where the evaluation of project activities was also held and future project activities were discussed. The event went well and strengthened the school cooperation.

green
micro:bit

Key action 2, Strategic partnerships for schools
Croatia-Slovenia

